Information on how We treat Payments You make to Us

Under the terms of our agreements with the Insurance companies with whom we place business, we normally receive premiums you pay to us as Agent of the Insurer. All insurance premiums you pay to us are protected in a Statutory Trust Client Account until we pay insurers. We do not pay any interest on premiums held by us in the course of arranging and administering your insurance.

Payment Options

We normally accept payment by cheque or by debit cards.

Are We covered by the Financial Services Compensation Scheme (FSCS)?

We are covered by the Financial Services Compensation Scheme (FSCS). For Commercial customers with less than £1m turnover, insurance advising and arranging is covered for 90% of the claim, without an upper limit. All compulsory insurances (for example, motor insurance and employers' liability insurance), insurance advising and arranging are covered for 100% of the claim, without an upper limit. Further information about compensation scheme arrangements is available from the FSCS.

Our Fees and Charges for the services We provide to You

We may be remunerated by way of commission from the insurers which is taken from the premium you pay us. We may also be remunerated by insurers by way of a profit share and/or override agreements. Alternatively we may arrange a policy on which we earn no commission and in these cases we will advise you of the arrangement fee before you take the policy out. We may also make additional charges specific to the arrangement and servicing of certain policies, but these will always be advised to you in advance.

Our staff are remunerated by way an annual salary and they may receive a bonus based on the new business they generate. This bonus makes up a small proportion of their salary. ProAktive review the placing of business regularly to ensure we continue to treat our clients fairly.

Prior to the conclusion of each insurance contract or upon renewal, we will remind you of your right to be advised of the level of commission which we receive from underwriters. You are entitled, at any time, to request information regarding any commission which we may have received as a result of placing your insurance.

Your premium may be paid to someone other than your insurer e.g. another intermediary who has arranged the policy. If this is the case we will use appropriate skill and care in our selection of these third parties in order to ensure adequate protection of your money.

Most money held by us is held as agent of the relevant insurance company, (otherwise known as "risk transfer"). In such circumstances the insurance company bears the risk of any losses that may arise from our failure to make a transfer of these funds. Risk Transfer will apply unless we advise you to the contrary prior to inception of your cover.

On occasions we may pay professional fees to third parties e.g. loss adjusters or valuers, on your behalf. Where this is the case we will obtain your specific consent and at this point the fees will cease to be client money.

Our Service

We have only approached a single insurer for this product. Where we do not have a policy which meets your stated needs, we will tell you which requirements are not met to enable you to make an informed decision.

We constantly monitor insurer security ratings, and will only utilise insurers with a security rating of BBB or above. However we cannot guarantee the solvency of any market used.

Your responsibility to provide information

You will be responsible for ensuring that all sums insured and indemnity limits are adequate for the cover requested. We will advise you of the basis of calculation for sums insured and will, on request, give you details of external experts, such as surveyors and valuers, which you may wish to consult.

As a consumer: (an individual who enters into the contract wholly or mainly for purposes unrelated to the individuals trade, business or profession) – You must take reasonable care to answer all questions honestly and to the best of your knowledge, and if you volunteer any other information, you must ensure that it is not misleading. If any information that you have provided to us changes before you take out your insurance, during the life of the policy or at renewal, you must inform us of the change. If you deliberately, recklessly or carelessly misrepresent any information in relation to this insurance then your policy may be cancelled without refund, or treated as if it never existed, or your claim rejected or not fully paid.
